Brittney Watson

October 28, 1987 – January 13, 2026

Brittney Watson, born October 28, 1987, finished her earthly journey on January 13, 2026. A radiant light in every room she entered, Brittney's joy was infectious, and anyone near her could feel the happiness she carried and graciously shared. Her love for Jesus and her family was boundless, serving as the foundation of her strength and spirit. Generosity came naturally; whether it was her own savings or something as simple as a piece of gum, Brittney gave freely and delighted in bringing joy to others. Her heart was enormous, and even though she was small in stature, her courage and perseverance were tremendous.

Throughout her life, Brittney faced numerous medical challenges, more than most could bear, but she never surrendered. She was a true fighter, "small but mighty," and her determination inspired everyone around her. She was a devoted daughter, beloved sister, and cherished friend. Despite all she endured, Brittney's faith in God never wavered. She often expressed her longing for Heaven and the day she could meet Jesus and wash his feet. She was a dedicated student of the Bible and maintained a profound, personal relationship with God. Many who knew her remarked that her words and writings seemed touched by divine inspiration.

Brittney's warmth touched everyone she met, she never knew a stranger and greeted all with kindness and compassion. Truly, she was an angel among us, leaving a lasting imprint on the hearts of friends, family, and acquaintances alike. She is survived by her loving parents, Mark and Lisa Watson; her sisters, Maryann and Anitta; her brother, Zacharia; and numerous relatives and friends who adored her. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Kenneth and Pauline Watson, Juan and Erminia Grajeda; her nephew, Ezekiel; and numerous beloved relatives and friends.

Brittney was proud, she endured, and she never gave up. Her legacy of love, strength, and unwavering faith will live on in all who knew her. As she often said, "Fight all battles with prayer and you will always win."

“ Brittney was my student while she attended West Plains Middle School. Her smile, her sweet spirit, kind heart, loving concern for others, her enthusiasm for learning and pride in her many accomplishments has always been a source of admiration for me and I'm honored to have known Brittney. My sincere sympathy to her friends and family.
