

Deborah Kottenbrook

October 21, 1955 - July 13, 2025

Deborah Kottenbrook, 69, of Willow Springs, passed away on July 13, 2025, at National Healthcare in West Plains, Missouri, with her daughter Misty at her side.

Deborah worked as a vet tech for most of her working years in Louisiana and she enjoyed selling Mary Kay. She loved camping at Lake D'Arbonne & Clairborne Lake in southern Louisiana where she was originally from.

Deborah was preceded in death by her husband, Paul McCoy Kottenbrook, her mother Shirley Kinman, her stepmother Christie Smith, one brother, Billy Mike McDonald, a sister, Sherry Ferris, and numerous other family members and friends.

Deborah is survived by her daughter, Misty Douglas and her husband David, three grandchildren: Katlyn, Lucas, Bowen, her sister Lisa Lynn Wilson, brother Pete McDonald and his wife Pam, her sister Melba and husband Chuck Pruett, and lots of nieces and nephews.

Deborah will be interred in Serenity Gardens next to her late husband in West Monroe, Louisiana, at a later date to be determined.

The family requests in lieu of flowers and gifts to make donations in her memory to help with final expenses. Please mail them to:
