“ Fly high Floyd! Just made chile verde the other night and I thought of you! You taught my brother how to paint and what an inspiration you were! My mom really wanted to see you this last fall but things didn't go as planned. I know you probably understood but it sure would've been great for you guys to meet up one last time. We love you ❤️

Floyd you're the kindest man and always could make me laugh, and I laugh so much our stomach would hurt and our faces would leak. You're with Jesus now and someday we will meet again, say hello to mom and dad. Floyd what a great friend you was, I will miss you!! Love your face you old goat.. love you and forever will miss you.. “ Floyd was my neighbor, and one of the nicest people I've ever met. He was always smiling, helpful, and friendly. He especially enjoyed the Senior Center. Floyd will be deeply missed and I hope he rests in sweet Heavenly peace.

“ I went to High School with Floyd in Washington, Iowa. He was a good friend of our family - especially my brother. I remember he was funny, kind & always smiling & laughing. His nickname was “Toad”. Sorry to hear of the accident. Our love is sent to his family. Patti
