Glen Edward Fields

1936 – 2025

Glen Edward Fields, age 89, passed away in November 2025, leaving behind a legacy of laughter, determination, and unwavering love. Born in Texas in 1936 to Tom and Lena Fields, Glen was raised on hard work and strong family values. From a young age, he embodied the fun-loving spirit and stubborn resolve that would define his life.

Glen spent many years working in the oil refineries of Texas, where he built a reputation as a reliable and dedicated worker. After retiring, Glen embraced a new chapter by moving to Missouri, first settling near Myrtle and later making his home in Thayer. He quickly fell in love with the Ozarks, cherishing the natural beauty and the community he found there.

Among his greatest joys were the friendships he forged, especially those at the Thayer Elks Lodge. Glen held dear every moment spent with his friends and expressed his deep affection for them often. His sense of humor, warmth, and generosity made him a beloved member of every group he joined.

Glen's heart belonged to his devoted wife, affectionately known as Grandma

Betty, who preceded him in death. Glen was also preceded in death by his parents, Tom and Lena Fields; his brothers, Gordon and Gary; his daughters, Rhonda Fields McVean and Renee Fields; his grandson, Alex Smith; and his stepson, Craig Hogan.

He is survived by his daughter, Reeca Fields Odom (and husband Mark); his daughter, Rhoni Fields (and husband Joey); his stepson, Keith Hogan (and wife Debbie); his stepdaughter, Kathy Hogan Rinchuso (and husband Ray); as well as many grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, and countless friends whom he loved dearly.

Glen's life was a testament to the power of love, friendship, and hard work. He will be remembered for his laughter, his stubborn spirit, and the joy he brought to those around him. Glen will be forever missed by all who knew and loved him.

No formal services will be held.
