September 15, 1987 - November 27, 2025

Tommy Collins Jr.

Remembering a Loving Father, Son, Brother, and Friend

Tommy Collins Jr., of West Plains, Missouri, was born on September 15th, 1987 and passed away on November 27th, 2025. He leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and strength that will be cherished by all who knew him.

Devoted Father

Tommy's world revolved around his beloved daughter, Zandrea. The bond they shared was truly special—he loved spending time with her, playing video games, and simply enjoying each other's company. Tommy found joy and fulfillment in being present for his daughter, making every moment count.

A Heart of Gold

Known for his generosity and compassion, Tommy was the kind of person who would give the shirt off his back to someone in need. He valued peace and kept to himself, never bothering anyone, but his kindness spoke volumes to those around him. Tommy's big heart touched many lives, and his willingness to help others will forever be remembered.

Passions and Interests

Tommy was an avid collector, with a particular fondness for knives, card games, and movies. These hobbies brought him joy and offered opportunities for connection with family and friends.

A True Fighter

Tommy possessed a toughness and resilience that inspired those around him. He was first diagnosed with cancer in 2018, and through determination and bravery, he overcame it. When cancer returned in 2023, Tommy faced the challenge head-on, fighting a courageous and hard-fought battle for two and a half years. His strength and perseverance will never be forgotten.

Legacy and Loved Ones

Tommy is survived by his daughter Zandrea, his father Tommy, sister Wendy and fiancé Mathew, all of Dora, Missouri, three nephews, and his best friend Josh. He also leaves behind many friends and family who will dearly miss him and carry his memory forward.

Final Remembrance

Tommy was a kind soul who would want everyone to remember the good times shared together. His legacy lives on through the love he gave, the strength he showed, and the memories he created with those closest to him.

In accordance with his wishes, no formal services will be held.
